

Lt. Brian Ellicott

- EMD Supervisor
- New York City, New York
- Died: November 24, 2007
- Brian died of non-Hodgkin's lymphoma which was caused from exposure of the toxic fumes at Ground Zero on 9/11.

Brian's personal life:

- Brian was a fan of science-fiction novels, he also loved to play Dungeons and Dragons with his children.
- Brian leaves behind his wife Deborah, as well as his two children Rose and Brandon.

Brian Ellicott's Career

- Brian graduated from Tottenville High School in 1972.
- Brian worked at Dell Ambulance service for two years before he became an emergency medical dispatch supervisor at FDNY station 4.
- He volunteered with Cub Scout Pack 6 when his son, Brandon, was a member.

