

Jarrett Dixon

- Paramedic/Firefighter
- Baltimore County, Maryland
- Born : September 3, 1971
- Died: January 13, 2008
- Jarrett developed chest pain while training at his fire station, was later hospitalized and release where, at home, he tragically suffered a seizure followed by a fatal heart attack.

Jarrett's personal life:

- Jarrett will be remembered as a man who dedicated his life to serving the community and a hero who shied away from taking credit for helping others.
- Jarrett, who is divorced, is survived by his five year old son, Gavin Dixon.

Jarrett Dixon's Career

- Jarrett graduated in 1994 from Maryland College Park with a degree in criminology & criminal justice. Jarrett was on his way to becoming a police officer but was bitten by the “firefighter bug”
- Dixon graduated from the Baltimore County Fire Academy in 1997

