

Karen Woods

- RN
- Karen died at the age of 43.
- Karen was from Colorado.
- Died: May 9, 2006
- Karen died in an ambulance
Involved MVC.

Karen leaves behind her husband, Lee, and daughter, Brooke

Karen's Career

- Karen had been a nurse for 10 years at the Medical Center of Aurora and worked part time as the head nurse for ambulances, transferring patients in critical care from one hospital to another
- Karen was nominated for the Florence Nightingale Award in nursing

Florence Nightingale
Statue.

Karen Woods Life

Karen was an active critical care registered nurse at University of Colorado. She also participated in 911 calls in the Denver/Aurora Colorado area. She was also a full time emergency registered nurse at the University of Colorado Hospital.