

Richard Powers- Paramedic

- Richard Powers was 45 years old when he died on July 30th, 2007 from a major heart attack after a shift. Richard died at the Beauport Ambulance Service headquarters in Gloucester, Massachusetts
- Richard had nearly 30 years of EMS experience at the time of his death

Richard's Life

- Richard enjoyed spending time with his 11 year old daughter Samantha, his big German Shepard Bizmark, and friends.
- When on duty he enjoyed driving along the Atlantic coast and posting at the fishing docks

Richard's EMS Career

- Richard had been an EMT for 4 years before becoming a paramedic for 24 years
- Along with working for Beauport Ambulance Service Richard had also worked as a supervisor for Cataldo Ambulance in Somerville Massachusetts
- Co-workers referred to Richard as the "Beauport Teddy Bear"

Quotes about Richard Powers

- "He really was the all-around greatest guy you could ever meet. He was well known statewide. He was one of the smartest guys. He was a great employee and a great family man. Beauport won't be the same without this gentleman." - John Morris, Beauport Ambulance President